

Captain Stephen Scott CLAREY, USN
Commander DESRON 21
 16 March 82 — Present

Captain Stephen S. Clarey is a graduate of Williams College and was commissioned at Officer Candidate School in Newport, Rhode Island, in October 1962.

His initial sea duty was aboard USS HOLLISTER (DD-788) in Long Beach, California, as Gunnery and ASW Officer, and as Operations Officer aboard USS BIGELOW (DD-942) in Mayport, Florida. Subsequent sea tours were as Commanding Officer, USS SUFFOLK COUNTY (LST-1173) in Little Creek, Virginia; Executive Officer, USS REEVES (CG-24) in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii; and as Commanding Officer, USS ELLIOT (DD-967) in San Diego, California. He has completed numerous forward deployments to the Mediterranean, Western Pacific, Indian Ocean, and the Southern Pacific.

Captain Clarey has had a variety of shore duty assignments in the Washington area. He has served as a Junior Officer Detailer, as a sea control and political-military analyst and study director in the Systems Analysis Division of OPNAV, as a Special Assistant for Joint Matters to the Director Joint Staff, and as Head, Planning and Development Branch within the General Planning and Programming Division of OPNAV.

Captain Clarey reports for duty as Commander Destroyer Squadron TWENTY-ONE after serving as the Executive Assistant and Senior Aide to Chief of Naval Operations.

Captain Clarey is a graduate of the Naval Destroyer School, the Armed Forces Staff College, and the Senior Officer Ship Material Readiness Course in Idaho Falls, Idaho. From 1969 to 1971 he attended the Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration and was awarded a Masters Degree in Business Administration in June 1971. He is a proven subspecialist in Financial Management and Operations Analysis. His personal decorations include the Legion of Merit, Meritorious Service Medal, Joint Service Commendation Medal, Navy Commendation Medal, and the Navy Achievement Medal with Combat "V".

Captain Clarey is the son of Admiral Bernard A. Clarey, USN (Ret) of Honolulu, Hawaii, a former Commander in Chief, U.S. Pacific Fleet. He is married to the former Roberta Rouzee of Manhasset, New York. He and Mrs. Clarey have two children: a son Christopher, a student at Williams College, and a teenage daughter, Ashley. They are currently residing in Coronado, California.

