

EDSON flew her battle ensign proudly and experienced some of her first hours accurately returning and suppressing frequent North Vietnamese counter battery. If success is to be determined in rounds fired at the enemy, we can look back on our 1967 cruise with much pride for EDSON literally wore her gun barrels smooth thus necessitating replacement in Subic.

