

COMMANDING OFFICER

CDR Schultz, a native of San Diego, California, attended high school in Groton, Connecticut and subsequently graduated from Crawford High School in San Diego. He completed his undergraduate degree from San Diego State University in 1972 whereupon he entered Officer Candidate School, Newport, Rhode Island, receiving his commission in November 1972. From January 1973 to January 1975, Commander Schultz was assigned to USS McKEAN (DD 784) as Combat Information Center and Electronic Warfare Officer. In March 1975 he was reassigned to USS BROOKE (FFG 1) as Gunnery and Missile Officer, later assuming duties as Main Propulsion Assistant. After completing the Surface Warfare Officer School Department Head course in 1977, he assumed duties as Engineer Officer of USS PAUL F. FOSTER (DD 964). In December 1982, CDR Schultz joined the PRE-COMM Unit of USS CROMMELIN (FFG 37) as Executive Officer. From November 1984 to June 1986 he was assigned to the staff of COMCARGRU 7 as Assistant Surface Operations Officer. Next, CDR Schultz was assigned as the Surface Warfare LCDR Detailer at the Naval Military Personnel Command from AUG 1986 to JUN 1988. Most recently, he attended Harvard University as a Graduate Student, completing his masters degree in JUN 1989. CDR Schultz assumed command of USS JOHN YOUNG in JUN 1990. His personal decorations include the Navy Commendation Medal with two gold stars, and the Navy Achievement Medal.

CDR P.S. SCHULTZ
JUN 1990 - APR 1992