

Left Repair Seven fire fighter, wearing oxygen breathing apparatus (OBA) and helmet, investigates fire call. Near left Setting Zebra on armored hatch. Below far left First aid training is a must for all hands. Drills are very realistic, especially if the "victim" is a ham. Below left Battle dress must be donned as quickly as possible.

Above Crewman tests for explosive fumes with a flame safety lantern. Left Fire hoses are hooked up to required lengths as each team is called to drill in different spaces.

