

LT. W. F. JOLLEY
Gunnery Officer

The Gunnery Department includes that very real but not integral unit—the deck force. The deck force performs the jobs commonly accorded a sailor plus several more: The painting and cleaning of the hull, the care and use of the anchors, the upkeep and maintenance of the boats and rigging. The gunner's mates and fire controlmen have the responsibility of keeping the guns and directors ready.

