

ARRIVAL BARCELONA

Our first port visit in the Med was to lovely Barcelona, Spain for the Christmas holidays. Being overseas during the Yuletide Season is never easy but the friendly natives, beautiful sights and excellent shopping in the land of Don Quixote made it bearable. We bid farewell to Barcelona well stocked with leather goods and antique ship models.

With a replica of Columbus's Santa Maria in the foreground, WAINWRIGHT moors at Muelle de Barcelona.

After three weeks at sea, the Barcelona ladies proved to be a welcome sight.

Get those lottery tickets while they're hot!