

EXECUTIVE OFFICER

COMMANDER KEVIN J. KELLEY

Commander Kevin J. Kelley was commissioned an Ensign from the NROTC Unit, University of Texas, on 25 May 1973.

Following graduation Commander Kelley reported aboard USS ALBERT DAVID (FF-1050) where he served as Gunnery Assistant and First Lieutenant. In August 1986, Commander Kelley reported to the USS ALBANY (CG-10) as Naval Tactical Data Systems Officer. From April 1978 to March 1981 Commander Kelley attended the U.S. Naval Post Graduate School where he graduated with a Master of Science in Operations Research followed by assignment to Surface Warfare Department Head School.

After graduation he was assigned as Chief Engineer on board USS PAUL (FF-1080). In December

1982 he reported to USS FORT SNELLING (LSD-30) for duty as First Lieutenant. During his tour he participated in the invasion of Grenada. In September 1984 Commander Kelley reported to the Office of Chief of Naval Operations (OP-91) where he was assigned as a Ship Cost and Budget Analyst. After completing the Surface Warfare Officer Prospective Executive Officer course he reported to USS VOGEL (FF-1047) in February 1987.

Commander Kelley's personal awards include the Meritorious Service Medal and the Navy Achievement Medal. Commander Kelley is married to the former Kathleen Johnson of Temple, Texas. The Kelleys have three children, Karen, Katherine, and Kristopher.