

EXECUTIVE OFFICER

LCDR. DAVID A. EHEMANN

LCDR. DAVID A. EHEMANN, a native of Pennsylvania, received his commission in 1969 from the United States Naval Academy. He is also a graduate of the Naval Destroyer School Newport Rhode Island, the Armed Forces Staff College, Norfolk, Virginia, and holds a Master of Science Degree in Operations Research from the Naval Post Graduate School, Monterey California.

In sea going assignments, LCDR. Ehemann has served as the Main Propulsion Assistant and Engineer Officer, USS FURSE (DD882); Operations Officer and Engineering Officer, USS MULLINIX (DD944). He has served ashore on the Staff of COMNAVSURFLANT.

LCDR. Ehemann has been awarded the Navy Commendation and Navy Achievement Medals. He is married to former Carole Kessler of Lancaster Pennsylvania. They presently reside in Virginia Beach, Virginia with their two sons William and Paul.

LCDR. Ehemann became the Executive Officer of USS TRUETT (FF1095) on 10 April, 1982.

